

A SPRING SALE OF STAPLE STOCK STARTS HERE ON SATURDAY

May is The Month For Money-Savers
At This Store.

Come
Saturday
And You'll Come Again.

NEW GOODS MUST BE SOLD TO MAKE ROOM FOR OTHER NEW GOODS

Usual business has failed to lessen our stock sufficient to make room for the 1912 stock, of which we bought heavily early in the year. A big stock of staple lines must stand the cut of the profit-slasher, as there is no way to increase store space. Rather than pay storage rental for the goods that are coming, the Honolulu buying public is to be given an opportunity to secure dry goods at prices that make even wholesalers gasp.

INITIAL LIST OF CANDIDATES

paire, and she may be only waiting for someone to send in her nomination before starting out, determined to win. Interest grows daily.

As though there was no limit to their enthusiasm, many candidates continue to display the energy and "stick-to-it" spirit that is bound to land them in the front rank at the finish. This is the only real winning spirit. Each day sees a new enthusiasm aroused in them, and each night sees them planning for the morrow. And the same interest is being shown throughout Honolulu and the outside districts. It appears as though practically every person in the Territory is interested in the campaign, as they should be, and its progress. And well might they, for no newspaper campaign ever before held in the Islands even compares with this one, either in the value of the prizes offered or the liberal conditions under which they are offered.

How To Help Your Favorite.

Readers of the Bulletin and friends of candidates can help their favorites by a very small amount of effort. To cut the daily coupons from each issue is a small matter, but it may be just what is necessary to enable the candidate of your choice to claim for her own the handsome 1912 "Regal" automobile, or any of the other handsome awards.

Where Subscriptions May Be Secured.
Candidates should bear in mind that subscriptions may be secured in any part of the Territory, United States, or any part of the world. Candidates are not restricted as to where they may work. Every subscription payment is entitled to votes. The division of districts is only for the more equal distribution of prizes.

Votes Free to Patrons.

The votes which will decide who will become the proud possessor of the Grand Capital Prize and the other awards are free to the patrons of the Bulletin. All that is required of candidates in order to win is industry and a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Subscribers may vote by clipping the coupons from the paper daily and by securing the votes due when paying or prepaying their subscriptions. People who subscribe now, who pay arrearages in subscription accounts or prepay subscriptions, will receive a special voting ballot, which may be voted at any time during the contest.

Therefore any person who wishes to assist and encourage an ambitious young woman who is trying for these prizes can do so by paying or prepaying his or her subscription to the Bulletin. Votes will be allowed and credited to the candidate selected by patrons according to the scale of votes published in each issue of the paper.

Big Combination Offer.
The Bulletin has arranged with the San Francisco Bulletin, which will soon begin the publication of Abe Ruef's own story, to furnish subscribers with the Coast paper at an additional cost of only $2.00 a year. This prize is a special one, and includes the regular price of the Bulletin, $8.00, and $2.00 for the San Francisco Bulletin, or the two together for $10 per year.

Abe Ruef's story is written by himself and will prove intensely interesting. It tells of the old "Graft" times in San Francisco before the fire, and deals with people who helped make San Francisco notorious. You should not miss this story.

Unpaid Subscriptions Count.
All subscribers to the Bulletin who are in arrears on their subscription accounts, and who pay up the same, are entitled to votes, according to the amount paid. When you pay your subscription be sure you receive the votes to which you are entitled.

Instructions for Voting.
Enter the name of the young woman whom you wish to see win one of these splendid awards AT ONCE. She may win the handsome 1912 complete-equipped "Regal" automobile, one of the elegant $550 "Remington" play-er-planes, a perfect $100 diamond ring or one of the other prizes.

Better still, get the lady to enter her own name and then vote for her. Those who get in on the start have the best chance of winning, hence it is desirable that the name of your favorite candidate be entered without delay. Candidates who enter this contest do not necessarily have to be subscribers to the Bulletin. Enter your name and your friends will do the rest. You will be surprised to see how rapidly the votes come in and what a little effort is required to win one of the rewards. Get in at the start and encourage your friends to vote for you; the rest will be easy. You will never know how popular you are until you enter the contest.

Votes Issued on All Payments.

Votes are issued on all subscription payments, both old and new. Be sure you receive your votes when paying or prepaying your subscriptions. Every subscription payment, even for one month, earns votes, and these may be voted for any candidate or held until the close of the campaign if the subscriber chooses.

Some insects digest their food first and eat it afterward. They are so built as to be able to take only liquid food and they inject a digestive fluid into their prey and thus gradually dissolve it, sucking in the liquid so formed until nothing remains but the dry skin.

MONTE CARLO PLAY IS ON THE WANE

PARIS, March 31.—A correspondent who has just made a special investigation in the Riviera for the purpose of finding out the truth about some of the lately much advertised huge winnings at Monte Carlo has heard on all sides complaints that the season has been one of the worst on record, and play at the Casino was declared by one of the principal officials to have been on the most timid scale ever known. As a matter of fact, the signs indicate that the popularity of this resort is already on the wane.

A prominent New York broker began rather well early in the season in partnership with a San Franciscan, but did badly later, and owing to trouble with a hotel-keeper about a dishonest check for $3000 was imprisoned until some fellow countrymen clubbed together to pay his debts.

Of the smaller losses there have been plenty. One American woman, with an income of $15,000, was several times this winter obliged to pawn her jewelry to keep herself alive. Investigation proved that several suicides occurred this season.

PAUPER SAILS TO GET HIS $125,000 ESTATE

Property He Left in Germany Grew in Value—Ashamed to Return Now

LOCKPORT, N. Y., March 29.—Adam Michael, fifty-six, an inmate of the Niagara County Almshouse for eight years, will sail tomorrow for Germany to take over property in Rheinfelde worth $125,000. His niece, Margaret Hordung, came to this country and after two months' search of Western New York, found him in the almshouse here.

Michael came to America thirty years ago, had hard luck, suffered ill-health, and was too proud to write to relatives in the Fatherland. The little property he left has increased in value to half a million marks. He did not want to leave the poorhouse, saying he was ashamed to go back.

The general conference of Reorganized Latter Day Saints in Independence, Mo., adopted a resolution by a majority of five votes in a total of 403, declaring that a second violation of the marriage vows on the part of members was unpardonable.
